3. Data description

- The time series is taken from the “Consumer conciliation report 2018” from the Federal Office of Justice. In its function as the Central Contact Point pursuant to Section 35 (1) of the Act on Alternative Dispute Resolution in Consumer Matters, the Federal Office of Justice is responsible for publishing the “Consumer conciliation report “as of 9 July 2018 and every four years thereafter, as well as for transmitting it to the European Commission. This report is based on the activity reports (Section 34 (1) of the Act on Alternative Dispute Resolution in Consumer Matters) and the evaluation reports of the consumer conciliation boards (Section 34 (2) of the Act on Alternative Dispute Resolution in Consumer Matters) as well as the evaluations of the evaluation reports sent by the competent ministries (Section 35 (2) of the Act on Alternative Dispute Resolution in Consumer Matters). For the present consumer conciliation report, the Federal Office of Justice comprehensively evaluated the activity reports of 18 consumer conciliation boards for the year 2016 and of 22 consumer conciliation boards for the year 2017, as well as the evaluation reports submitted by these 22 conciliation boards for the first time as of 1 February 2018 - both with regard to the presentations and conclusions contained therein as well as with regard to the numerical material. For this purpose, the statistical data contained in the reports, among others on incoming applications, rejections, willingness to settle and cross-border disputes, were broken down for all conciliation bodies. The data of the “Consumer conciliation report 2018” only refer to recognised consumer conciliation bodies in Germany. Other out-of-court dispute resolution mechanisms such as mediation procedures or conciliation procedures by non-recognised conciliation bodies or via informal dispute resolution mechanisms in Germany are not covered by the consumer conciliation report.
